

World Team Championships History Sweden claiming Gold in 2000

Halmstad's own Jörgen Persson was the man of the hour in 2000 when Sweden beat China 3-2 and secured Europe's hitherto last gold medal in the Team Event, and now the time might be ripe for another sensation.

Welcome to the 2018 World Table Tennis Championships! April 29th – May 6th in Halmstad Will Europe turn the tide?

In the year 2000 in Kuala Lumpur, Sweden caused a major upset when they beat China in the Men's Team Finals to claim gold against all odds. Now, 18 years later, all eyes are once again on Sweden, when the LIEBHERR World Table Tennis Championships 2018 will be held in Halmstad.

An unforgettable experience awaits you at the LIEBHERR World Table Tennis Championships 2018. Be there live and witness as history is being made when England and the rest of the world try to dethrone China once and for all!
